He says: I have had a very troublesome allment with my nose and throat for the last six years. My nose was so much stuffed up that I could get no air through it, which necessitated my breathing through my mouth altogether. My head felt full and I had frequent headaches; my voice was thick and nasal in tone. I could not even drink a glass of water without stopping to get my breath; my throat felt full of phlegm and very dry—at night my sleep was broken and I would frequently wake up with a sense of suffocation. I had used home remedies, but they did me no good, as I could not reach the trouble.

My nose is now clearer than it has been for twenty-five years; even exposure does not affect it. The Nice Times the Debutantes Have Been Having.

EVENTS OF THE NEAR FUTURE

Where the Fashionables May Expect to Meet Each Other.

OTHER INTERESTING TOPICS

The first week of December has gone by with a regular spin. The oldest inhabitant cannot recollect a winter so full of promise at the start. The introductions of the debutantes have, of course, had a great deal to do with it, but the entertainments have included a great many other diversions, and have been well varied. The quantity of invitations sent broadcast the past few days would indicate that the pace already set would be kept up for some time to come, and the probabilities are that the elusive period known as a "gay winter" is really a strong certainty. The debutantes are hanging together in pretty nearly all their entertainments, so that if one is seen the rest are in the same neighborhood. There is not a shadow of a doubt but that these interesting young ladies are prettier than ever this year, and brilliant futures are being predicted for them. One who is already quite the toast has, to use the language of the day, been "spoken for" by an enormously rich suitor, and great are the expectations in conse-quence. These and other delicious and perfectly harmless bits of gossip, which are chatted about the tea tables, add considerable zest to the prospects of the girls hav irg the good time which is their due. In the bunch of buds presented the past week were Miss Clagett, Miss Hagner, Miss Ramsey, and today will come Miss Justine de Pyster. Next week Miss Sheridan, Miss Rush, Miss Helen Steele and Miss Ruth Harlan, will go through the same pleasing experiences, and later, Miss Elizabeth Brewer, Miss Davis, Miss Call and Miss McCammon will be presented at teas. Among the events of the coming week will be on Monday, Mrs. Charles M.

Thomas and Miss Thomas, a tea, at 920 Farragut square; Mrs. and Miss Rush, a tea, at the Alibi Club, 1806 I street; Mrs. Edward Middleton and Miss Middleton, a tea, at 223 A st. eet southeast, and Mrs. Ralph Cross Johnson, sr., a tea at 5 o'clock. On Tuesday Mrs. Breckinridge will give a luncheon; Mrs. Phil. Sheridan, a tea, to introduce her caughter; the marriage of Miss Lizzie Lyons to Representative Swanson of Virginia will take place, and Mrs. Herman Knickerbocker Viele will give a reception at 3 o'clock. On Wednesday at high, noon the marriage of Miss Mary Shernan and Mr. James McCallum will take place at the residence of Senator Sherman, and Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Steele will give a ball as a coming out for their daughter, Miss Helen Steele. On Thursday Justice and Mrs. Harlan will give a tea to introduce their second daughter, Miss Ruth Harlan, on Friday Mrs. John F. Rodge's will give a tea for Miss Sheri-dan, and Mr. and Mrs. Cabell an evening reception, at which the Secretary of the Treasury will make an informal address, and on Saturday the Brazilian minister and Mrs. Mendonca will give the second of their series of six musical evenings, and Miss McCammon will make her debut at a tea. Later invitations out are for an evening reception by Justice and Mrs. Brown on Tuesday, December 18, and the debut tea of Miss Elizabeth Brewer, for which the cards were sent out yesterday, and which will occur on Wednesday, the 19th, from 4 to 7. Today's events comprise the debut tea of Miss Justine de Pyster, and a dinner to be given by the Postmaster General and Mrs Bissell, in honor of Minister and Mrs. Zeballos.

The Bachelors' germans are being reorganized for the coming season, and seventy-five men will be asked to subscribe. Three assemblies have been arranged for, Wednesdays, January 9 and 30, and February 20. The names on the committee are guarantee enough that the club is in for a successful season. Mr. William Hall Slack is the president, Mr. Jesse Brown, vice president, with Messrs. R. S. Chilton, C. C. Glover, Charles L. McCawley, Capt. Alexander Rodgers, J. Van Ness Phillips, Marquis Imperialli, Baron Ketteler, and P. Lee Phillips, secretary. The Hunt ball will be made a Christmas week frolic, to which season it rightfully belongs, and an assembly ball, or perhaps two, is also within the range of possibility. The Bachelors' germans are likely to be early affairs, though it is not at all probable they will be small ones. The cotillion will begin at 10 and conclude a half hour past

Jams as great as any which occurred last winter were noticeable the past week at several of the teas, and people are be-ginning to think that the ladies will either have to wear smaller sleeves or else not accept all their invitations. The big sleeves, which are stiffened out with buckram until they present as formidable an obstacle in passing your neighbor in a crowded room as the tall hat obstructs your vision at the theater, are really a menace to bric-a-brac, and several times last week nearly caused the setting on fire of houses where entertainments were in progress. One lady passing by a lamp on a table brushed the silk shade a little awry, and along came another, pushed by some one behind her, who upset the whole business, and only for the expeditious movements of those near by that tea would have wound up very disastrously to all concerned. Senator and Mrs. Call will present their daughter, Miss Call, at a tea, Saturday, December 22, from 4 until 7, at their residence. 1903 N street. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Waggaman have
